Hello,

Thank you to those of you who attended Wednesday's virtual information session on the extra consultation on Breckland's Local Plan. We hope you found it useful.

We are now adding an extra phase of consultation to consider key issues. Feedback shared during the Issues and Options phase of consultation raised further questions which this extra phase will explore in more detail.

This Development Strategy Consultation will run from Monday 8th January until Monday 19th February 2024.

In Spring 2024, there will be a further opportunity to share feedback on the draft version of the new Local Plan – Preferred Options.

What's new?

The key issues in this extra phase of consultation include Local Service Centres, different ways to define settlements, alternative development strategy options and a proposed criteria to assess sites shared during the Call for Sites.
